Do you want to get close to the largest animal in Maine's North Woods? Let us arrange a moose tour with a local guide. You'll visit remote ponds and paddle canoes or kayaks right into prime moose habitat. We're so sure you'll see a moose that if you don't, the guide will take you again for free. Scheduling is subject to prior bookings. Your guide will pick you up at the Greenville Inn. Morning or evening moose tours last four hours. You can expect a couple hours on the water. Morning moose tours typically depart around 6 a.m., but can be structured to fit your schedule. Evening moose tours span the last four hours of the day. Morning or evening tours with a two-night stay start at $450.00 (for a party of one or two). If a moose tour is cancelled by the guide due to inclement weather, your moose safari will be rescheduled or refunded (your choice).
